Wow...there weren't many intros...I'm guessing this forum is really new? That's cool! I get to watch this great community grow!!!

Anyhow, my name is Shannon, and I just recently learned how to play Texas Hold'em. My grandmother taught me. (I am 20 years old.) I am going to Las Vegas next summer for my 21st bday, so hopefully knowing how to play will come in useful! ;)

Hi Shannon, welcome to the 4texasholdem community. You are right that the forum is really new, it is less than a couple of weeks old.

Good luck in Vegas!

Thanks! I am hoping I save enough money to do some serious gambling, but I am mainly going there to get married. I just figured I would make it a really fun trip by it also being my 21st bday. lol.
