I usually play on Tiger gaming and UltimateBet. I think that Tiger is the fastest and easiest to use, so I usually end up there losing my money.

I like to play on FullTiltPoker, and other sites such as Party Poker. I do most of my playing in real games, so I don't really go online as much.

I play on Pokerstars.com and Partypoker.com. PartyPoker I play on the go because they have a new feature where you can play from your web browser. Pokerstars I play on the desktop because the laptop (which I'm on) is Linux so I can't have the program installed until I switch over to Fedora. Personally, I like PartyPoker better, but Pokerstars is still a great site.

Play mostly on Stars because of the rebuy tourneies and $2 and $3 buy-ins. Used to play at Bodog a lot, but it seemed I was getting many unusually bad beats during times that I was doing good at the sportsbook :unsure:

I actually just play on Yahoo with play money right now, since I just recently learned how to play. My grandmother has been playing on Bodog, poker stars, and another one I can't remember. lol. She never uses real money though. She doesn't have it to lose. Her husband just died Saturday, so...yeah. We are all really tight on money from helping to pay for the funeral. :(

I don't know if you can or not. I know that gambling is illegal in some states, period (like in Alabama), so I don't know how they get around that.

I didn't know that gambling of any kind was illegal in Alabama. Do you have scratch offs then? Anyway with the new law I will just stick with playing with play money.

I play at BoDog. They are the best. I have been a member for 5 years. Great customer service. Never a problem with payouts.

I play on PokerStars.com. I like the company, they always have some sort of tournaments, nice bonuses and good people out there.
