
Resorts Casino in Chicago Illinois

Posted by Whalewager - 2007/10/23 19:27

I was on vacation about a year and a half ago, and got the chance to go to the Resorts Casino in East Chicago, played a little 5-10 NL.

Had a pretty good time, didn't have any particularly strong players at my table. Lot of weak calling in my opinion

A lot of action at the higher limit tables, but I didn't stick around long enough to get THAT greedy

Hope to go back next spring. Anyone else been there??

I have never been to any casino in Chicago. Chicago is really not all that far away from me so I will have to make note of this and check it out when we go their. Thanks for sharing.
