
Rude Players

I have this one person that we play with and am curious as if you find this rude? He is forever demeaning me in that he is always saying things like "that was a dumb move" or "who taught you how to play?" He doesn't just do this to me he does it to all of us at one time or another. The way I look at it is if you are going to say something like this it would be nice to state why you feel that way and what you would do instead of just acting high and mighty. This person is really ruining my game. We play to have fun and it isn't a tournament or anything.

Sounds like he is just trying to put you on tilt. Often times this strategy is successful. You change the way you play normally because you are upset.

You're right and I thought that too but it just takes the fun out of the game for me. I mean there are other ways to do that.
